APPLICATION

ALA CloudRun

Cloud Run. Running together anytime, anywhere

You can run at home through the first international Marathon trails simulation map.

ALA CloudRun™

Nominated for the German 2018 FIBO Innovation & Trend Award

Curve

When running, all data is synchronized in time, and the graph is merged into the APP interface for observation and recording.

Control APP

According to the international track map, the treadmill will automatically change the incline to let you challenge the world-class competition.

Game

You can have a running race with your sporting friends and running players without distance limitation and also challenge the world record.

Training

Customized training plan based on your own needs

SMART TREADMILL
AT200/AT300/AT400

Durable and heavy-duty high efficiency motor assembling

Through repeated test, our motors reach noiseless, silent, smooth and high energy-saving standards.

51cm width comfort running rack and wearproof running belt both beyond equivalent

Make your exercise actions much more comfortable with no worry.

High carbon steel structure

Made of high carbon steel, stable operation, high load capacity and safer.

Double hardness shock absorber, comprehensive protection

The double-hardness shock absorber absorbs the shock wave with high efficiency, just like running on the real road.

Luxury big running platform with wear-resistant running belt

Commercial home-use running space, up to 51 cm wide to improve the comfort of runners

Double-coated running board, hard and durable

A running platform that meets the specifications of professional exercise runners, allowing you to run safely and enjoyably.

Incline multi-stage slope, training smooth and not annoying

With a 30-segment (AT800) slope design, it is more efficient to train muscle endurance and explosiveness when combined with simulated situations.

Professional sports and fitness mode, as your exclusive coach

Up to a dozen sports modes, professional training courses tailored to your individual needs.

Two-way hydraulic folding design, safe and easy storage

Hi-Fi Bluetooth Speaker

Quick-button design

Multi-segment hydraulic foldable rack promise for your security

Lifting steady preventing fall down, descend slowly as safety protection.

Smooth lifting incline, makes effective training level

Training via exercise modes or apply with ALA CLOUDRUN application: virtual race makes effective training for muscular endurance and power force level.

High-carbon steel structure, High load bearing capacity

Lead your sporting experience on safety runway and steady operation.

Cozy cushion prompt absorbing vibration with high efficiency

Bilateral square shock absorber plus dual coating rack keeps smooth operation on treadmill mechanism.

Release pressure for every steps, ease burden on kness and ankles and offer you overall protection and security.
